Lifestyle expert Christine Feldthaus comments on Ann Lindgren's art

*"The paintings are very modern - not too self-important.
They express a clear statement. It's art with a clear message and powerful signal. It does not contain "Nature morte" or flower images."*

*“She is a Brilliant Artist who understands her customer.
Her art creates interest and conversation in ways that most art never can.
You won’t see her pieces in your hotel room but you may see them in the board room.”*
